PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 12/12/2019, and 12/20/2019.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

3

Standard Condition #13: You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Paschall violated the terms of his supervised release by failing to comply with a directive of the U.S. probation officer, on or about December 31, 2019.

On November 16, 2018, supervision commenced in this matter. On November 20, 2018, a supervision intake was completed. His judgment was reviewed with him and he signed a copy acknowledging an understanding of the conditions imposed by the Court, which includes standard condition number 13, noted above.

On December 5, 2019, following allegations of domestic violence (as outlined in violation number 1 in the petition filed on December 12, 2019), Mr. Paschall was directed to have no contact with his now estranged wife, Alicia Paschall, or return to the Carlyle apartments where they resided together.

On December 31, 2019, the undersigned received a call from Mrs. Paschall regarding their ability to have contact. She confirmed that she does not want to continue to have a relationship with Mr. Paschall but wants him to be involved in the lives of their children (she is currently pregnant expecting twins). The undersigned officer explained concerns surrounding the various serious allegations made in regards to Mr. Paschall. She acknowledged that Mr. Paschall has been communicating with her and advised that he has been coming to the Carlyle apartments.

Mr. Paschall was contacted and confronted regarding contact with Mrs. Paschall which he adamantly denied. He also denied having any contact with Mrs. Paschall or going to the Carlyle apartments since December 12, 2019. He was again asked if his name would be in the visitor's sign-in book at the Carlyle apartments. He again denied it, but ultimately admitted to going to the Carlyle.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
